

NON-SOLICITATION, NON-COMPETE, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ASSIGNMENT AND CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Private and Confidential

THIS AGREEMENT is entered into on between:

We Are Team Rocket (Private) Limited (registered in Sri Lanka under registration No. PV119691 and Edmeades & Simpson Ltd in England & Wales under registration No. 08403557, together the "Company"); and

The individual signed under the Signatories to this Agreement (each a "Signatory").

BACKGROUND

The Company operates a technology business utilising artificial intelligence services, cloud infrastructure (including Amazon Web Services), and proprietary operational processes. The Company has developed and maintains valuable confidential information, client relationships, and intellectual property. Each Signatory occupies a position of trust and has access to, or may develop, such confidential information and client relationships in the course of their engagement with the Company.

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1 "Confidential Information" means all information (whether or not marked as confidential) relating to the Company's business, including but not limited to: technical processes, standard operating procedures, AI system architectures, AWS configurations and workflows, client data, pricing, business strategies, financial information, employee details, and any information that is by its nature confidential.

1.2 "Restricted Period" means the duration of the Signatory's employment or engagement with the Company and for an indefinite period following its termination.

1.3 "Restricted Business" means any business that is the same as, substantially similar to, or competitive with the business carried on by the Company as at the date of termination of the Signatory's engagement.

1.4 "Client" means any person, company, or entity that was a client of or in active negotiations with the Company at any time for an indefinite period after the termination of the Signatory's engagement.

1.5 "Territory" means Sri Lanka, the United Kingdom, and any jurisdiction in which the Company operates or has active clients as at the date of termination.

2. CONFIDENTIALITY

2.1 Each Signatory agrees that they shall not, at any time during or after their engagement with the Company, directly or indirectly use, disclose, copy, or permit access to any Confidential Information except:

- (a) in the proper performance of their duties to the Company;
- (b) with the prior written consent of the Company; or
- (c) as required by applicable law or a binding court order, provided that the Company is given reasonable prior written notice.

2.2 Each Signatory shall take all reasonable steps to protect the Confidential Information from unauthorised disclosure or use.

2.3 The obligations in this clause shall survive the termination of the Signatory's engagement indefinitely.

3. NON-SOLICITATION OF CLIENTS

3.1 Each Signatory agrees that during the Restricted Period they shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, approach, canvass, or entice away from the Company any Client with whom they had material dealings for an indefinite period after the termination of their engagement, for the purpose of offering or providing services that compete with or are substantially similar to those of the Company.

3.2 This restriction applies regardless of whether the Signatory initiates contact or the Client does so.

3.3 Notwithstanding the obligations set out in Clause 2, the Signatory may disclose Confidential Information solely to the following persons (each a "Permitted Disclosee"):

- (a) members of the Signatory's immediate working team, sub-employees, or senior employees of the Company who require access to the Confidential Information for the performance of their duties in connection with the Permitted Purpose;

- (b) support staff of the Company who require access to the Confidential Information in the ordinary course of the Company's business operations;

provided always that disclosure under this Clause 3.1 shall only be made where the Permitted Disclosee:

- (i) has a genuine operational need to access the Confidential Information for the performance of work related to the Permitted Purpose;

- (ii) is bound by a written agreement or professional obligation imposing duties of confidentiality no less protective than those contained in this Agreement; or

- (iii) where no such written agreement exists, receives the Confidential Information in circumstances from which a duty of confidentiality would reasonably be implied.

3.4 The Signatory shall procure that each Permitted Disclosee complies with the confidentiality obligations set out in this Agreement as if they were a party to it. Any breach by a Permitted Disclosee shall be deemed a breach by the Signatory.

3.5 Where there is any uncertainty as to whether particular information is confidential in nature, or as to the scope of disclosure that is permissible, the Signatory shall seek written confirmation from their Head of Department or direct Supervisor before making any disclosure or use of such information. The Signatory shall not proceed with any disclosure pending such confirmation.

4. NON-SOLICITATION OF EMPLOYEES

4.1 Each Signatory agrees that during the Restricted Period they shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, recruit, encourage, or attempt to induce any employee, contractor, or consultant of the Company to terminate their engagement with the Company.

5. NON-COMPETE

5.1 Each Signatory agrees that during the Restricted Period they shall not, within the Territory, directly or indirectly:

(a) carry on, own, manage, operate, control, be employed by, provide services to, participate in, or be connected with any Restricted Business;

(b) establish, promote, or assist in establishing or promoting any Restricted Business; or

(c) utilise any Confidential Information or the Company's proprietary processes for the benefit of any third party.

5.2 The Parties acknowledge that the restrictions in this clause are reasonable and necessary to protect the Company's legitimate business interests, including its client relationships, goodwill, trade secrets, and workforce.

6. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

6.1 Each Signatory warrants and represents that, as at the date of this Agreement, they have fully and accurately disclosed in writing to the Company all actual or potential conflicts of interest known to them, including without limitation any business, directorship, shareholding, consultancy, or other interest held by themselves or any connected person that may conflict with, or be perceived to conflict with, the Signatory's duties and obligations to the Company.

6.2 Each Signatory undertakes that throughout the duration of their employment or engagement with the Company they shall:

(a) promptly disclose to the Company in writing any new actual or potential conflict of interest that arises, as soon as reasonably practicable after it comes to their attention;

(b) not take any action, enter into any arrangement, or hold any interest that would or might reasonably be expected to conflict with the proper performance of their duties to the Company or with the Company's business interests; and

(c) where a conflict of interest arises or is reasonably anticipated, take all steps directed by the Company to manage, mitigate, or eliminate such conflict, including recusing themselves from relevant decisions or transactions as required by the Company.

6.3 A failure by the Signatory to disclose a conflict of interest in accordance with this Clause shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement and may render the Signatory liable in addition to any other remedies available to the Company at law or in equity, whether under the laws of Sri Lanka or England and Wales.

7. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

7.1 All inventions, innovations, processes, methodologies, software, designs, works, and improvements conceived, developed, or created by a Signatory in the course of their engagement with the Company shall vest in and be the absolute property of the Company.

7.2 The Employee shall disclose to the Company in writing, prior to commencement of employment, any pre-existing intellectual property that may be relevant to the work. Any IP not disclosed in writing is presumed to have been created in the scope of employment and shall belong to the Company.

7.3 The Employee agrees to execute any additional documents, assignments, or applications reasonably required by the Company to perfect or record the Company's ownership of the assigned intellectual property, both during and after employment.

7.4 Each Signatory waives any moral rights they may have in such intellectual property to the fullest extent permitted by law.

7.5 The Employee shall not incorporate any Company intellectual property, code, algorithms, methodologies, or proprietary processes into any product, service, or project outside of their duties to the Company, including any external business operated by the Employee.

7.6 Each Signatory shall execute all documents and take all steps reasonably required by the Company to perfect or protect the Company's title to such intellectual property.

8. RETURN OF COMPANY PROPERTY

8.1 Upon termination of engagement (or on demand by the Company), each Signatory shall immediately return all Company property including devices, access credentials, documents, data, and any copies of Confidential Information in any format. No copies shall be retained.

9. USE OF COMPANY DIGITAL MEDIA AND SOCIAL MEDIA

9.1 Each Signatory shall, at all times during their employment or engagement with the Company, comply with the Company's applicable policies and procedures issued by the Company from time to time, when accessing, using, or referencing the Company, its clients, or its business in any digital or online medium.

9.2 Each Signatory acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) content published or shared on digital media platforms may constitute public information for an indefinite period and may materially affect both the Signatory's professional reputation and the reputation of the Company, its associated entities, and its clients;

(b) the Company reserves the right to monitor, to the extent permitted by applicable law in Sri Lanka and England and Wales, any content or information made available by Signatories through digital media where it relates to the Company, its clients, employees, or business operations; and

(c) Company computer systems, software, and digital infrastructure are provided for business purposes only. Use of social media for business purposes is permitted where it falls within the Signatory's designated role and responsibilities.

9.3 The following conduct is expressly prohibited:

(a) publishing, posting, or otherwise disseminating any information that constitutes Confidential Information or that has not been approved for public release by an authorised representative of the Company;

(b) posting commentary, content, or images that are defamatory, pornographic, harassing, libellous, discriminatory, or that may create a hostile work environment;

(c) referring to, tagging, or publishing images of current or former employees, contractors, clients, members, vendors, or suppliers without having obtained their prior written consent; and

(d) using any third party's copyright material, trademarks, service marks, or other intellectual property in digital media without appropriate authorisation.

9.4 Where a Signatory encounters a situation on digital media that is or threatens to become antagonistic, legally sensitive, or reputationally damaging to the Company, the Signatory shall immediately disengage from the interaction and refer the matter to their supervisor or an authorised representative of the Company prior to making any further communication.

10. REMEDIES

10.1 In the event of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Signatory, the Company shall be entitled to recover from the Signatory all direct losses, costs, damages, and expenses suffered or incurred by the Company as a direct result of such breach, including but not limited to:

(a) loss of revenue, income, or anticipated contractual benefit arising from the breach;

(b) costs of remediation, system restoration, or data recovery necessitated by the breach;

(c) loss of business opportunity or competitive advantage caused by the unauthorised use or disclosure of Confidential Information or Intellectual Property; and

(d) diminution in the value of the Company's goodwill, client relationships, or proprietary assets attributable to the breach.

10.2 Without prejudice to Clause 10.1, the Company shall further be entitled to recover from the Signatory all consequential, indirect, and special losses arising from a breach of this Agreement, including but not limited to:

(a) loss of profits, whether actual or anticipated, that the Company would have earned but for the breach;

(b) loss of contracts, client accounts, or business relationships caused directly or indirectly by the breach;

(c) loss arising from damage to the Company's market position, commercial reputation, or brand value; and

(d) any reduction in the value of the Company's research and development investment, proprietary processes, or Intellectual Property as a result of unauthorised disclosure, misappropriation, or competitive exploitation by the Signatory.

11. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

11.1 For matters arising in or relating to the United Kingdom entity, the Parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

11.2 For matters arising in or relating to the Sri Lankan entity, the Parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Sri Lanka.

11.3 Nothing in this clause prevents the Company from seeking emergency injunctive or other interim relief in any jurisdiction.

12. GENERAL

12.1 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties regarding its subject matter and supersedes all prior agreements on the same subject.

12.2 No variation of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by all Parties.

12.3 A failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of that right.

12.4 This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original.
